We have welcomed our new committee members, Ann, Elaine, Margaret and Martin and have co-opted them until the AGM in January, when, if they are willing to continue, as we hope that they will, you, as members, will have the opportunity to vote them onto the committee proper and so keep our u3a alive.

The Filey Lions are looking for someone able to carve, or give them information, with regards to anyone capable of sculpting a lion, in wood, to be placed in the Glen gardens.

Our next meeting to be held at the Sea Cadets, Southdene, Filey is 25th September 10.00am meet for 10.30 start

Our presentation this month will be by
Kieran Robert Scott                      Yorkshire Air Ambulance

At this meeting the organisers of Dining out 2, Pat and Anthony, will have a table for you to ask questions and/or sign up. Also if you are interested in joining other like minded members for a Christmas Day meal, there will be a table with information and a chance to sign up.

Dave Newbury our website organiser has asked that you be reminded that the Filey and District u3a site has the details of all the groups, upcoming event notices, items of interest, Filey u3a policy documents, committee meeting minutes, newsletter back issues and some stunning pictures. The website link is <https://filey.u3asite.uk> If you want to publish a notice, correct a group entry, or anything else contact Dave Newbury on danefiley@aol.com

Just a reminder that memberships for next year will not be able to be submitted until after the AGM in January, where next years subscriptions will be proposed to the membership and hopefully approved.

What do you benefit from by being a u3a member and having internet access, you can visit our website and facebook pages Filey and District. With dark nights and cold days approaching you can visit the national website to receive zoom talks, workshops and podcasts. Plenty to choose from which I am sure you will find something very interesting. If you have an email address and haven't provided us with it just think what you are missing and remember you can also catchup with the newsletter etc. on our web page.

If you have any issues or queries with regards to the groups with which you are involved, on our website you will be able to access recommendations from the u3a and also any legal/ insurance details. If you can't find what you are seeking your committee are there, willing to help.

After some very sterling work and years of helping to provide refreshments for our meetings Susan and Brenda have decided that now is the time to relax, if anyone feels able to take on the job of providing teas and coffees at the monthly meetings we would be very grateful. Please come to the september meeting and make yourselves known.

Some group news, the Family History Group have two vacancies, Have you ever thought about researching the history of your family and not known where to start? We have members who can show you how to start and give help and advice. The group meet monthly in the library Friday mornings, you need to be a u3a member and a member of the Filey library, for contact details and further information check with your members booklet or visit the website.

There are still a number of this years membership cards waiting to be collected. You will need these as proof of membership for your group organisers.
