

GDPR notice
to members and visitors:

We will be photographing and filming throughout the day.

The images may be used on displays, in presentations, posters, print publications, online publications, websites and social media with the specific purpose of promoting the U3A movement and its activities.

If you would like to opt out of having your images captured, please inform the photographer/videographer.